A Fund of Silicon Valley Community Foundation

CONFLICT OF INTEREST POLICY STATEMENT

Silicon Valley Community Foundation has consistently followed a policy of avoiding any conflict of interest or the appearance of any conflict of interest on the part of the members, staff, and volunteers of the Foundation in the consideration of making grants and scholarships. In this respect, the “Go For It” Scholarship Fund Scholarship Committee (the “Committee”) sets forth the following written statement of its conflict of interest policy:

1. No member of the committee whose duties include evaluating existing or potential scholarship recipients shall have any monetary benefit, direct or indirect, in any scholarship grant.

2. During the consideration of any scholarship applicant by the committee, any member of the committee who is connected with the applicant shall withdraw from the meeting until discussion and action on the applicant shall have been completed. Any member of the committee who is connected with the applicant shall refrain from voting on the proposed applicant. The withdrawal from the meeting as contemplated by this paragraph shall not be deemed to affect the presence of a quorum at this meeting.

3. No person with whom any such member of the committee, or the spouse of such member, is so affiliated shall receive any special consideration whatsoever by the committee for their application, and no variation in the procedures or standards for processing scholarships shall be permitted.
